PSAL boys attend summer camps and workouts sponsored by TK
Foundation

Many thanks to Coach Bob Hurley for your support of the Foundation and helping make this happen

Pictured above is Janius Dickson, Construction HS, Queens, Class of 2024. He attended the Hoop Group camp in July and was named the camp MVP, leading his team to the Championship. Tom would be proud of Janius as he is the type of dedicated student / athlete Tom would get to know and help along the way. Many thanks to Construction Coach Corey Semper and Coach Bob Holford for recommending Janius.

In all, the Foundation sponsored 6 boys to the Hoop Group Camps. Tom always felt that overnight summer camps were a great opportunity for city boys to experience both for the camaraderie and skills development.

TK Foundation partners with Big Apple Basketball for 8 sessions of skills workouts

15-20 PSAL boys will attend each of 8 workout sessions at gyms in Manhattan, The Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens. The focus is on basketball skills, teamwork and sportsmanship.

At the end of each session a guest speaker tells the boys about Tom Konchalski, his values and the effect Tom had on their lives.

The workout sessions are offered under the mentorship of Coach Jason Curry, President of Big Apple Basketball.

Prayer

Tom's presence was felt in a prayer of thanksgiving, asking for God's protection and guidance for these boys, in Jesus's name.

Coach Robert Holford tipped off the summer with a two-day grassroots tournament honor of Tom. Sixteen teams participated including HS, JV and Middle School. It is events like this one that teach our youth values such as sportsmanship, teamwork and integrity. Tom would have loved to be in the gym those days and we know he was there in spirit.

The event raised $1,000 for the Foundation.

Our heartfelt thanks go out to Coach Holford and Hassan Jennings, both of whom were great friends of Tom.
